

A MILLION-DOLLAR VISIT TO A STARVING PEOPLE

PRINCE AND PRINCESS OF WALES WILL GO IN A BOUDOIR BATTLE SHIP TO "JOLLY" INDIA—SIX MONTHS IN THE LAND OF THE RAJAHS AT GREAT EXPENSE—ROYAL LADY A POOR SAILOR, SO A MAN-O-WAR IS UPOLSTERED FOR HER.

London, Oct. 10.—At a cost of at least $1,000,000 to the British taxpayers, the Prince and Princess of Wales will leave England this month for India to spend half a year in having a truly royal good time.

They will combine business with pleasure by making strenuous efforts

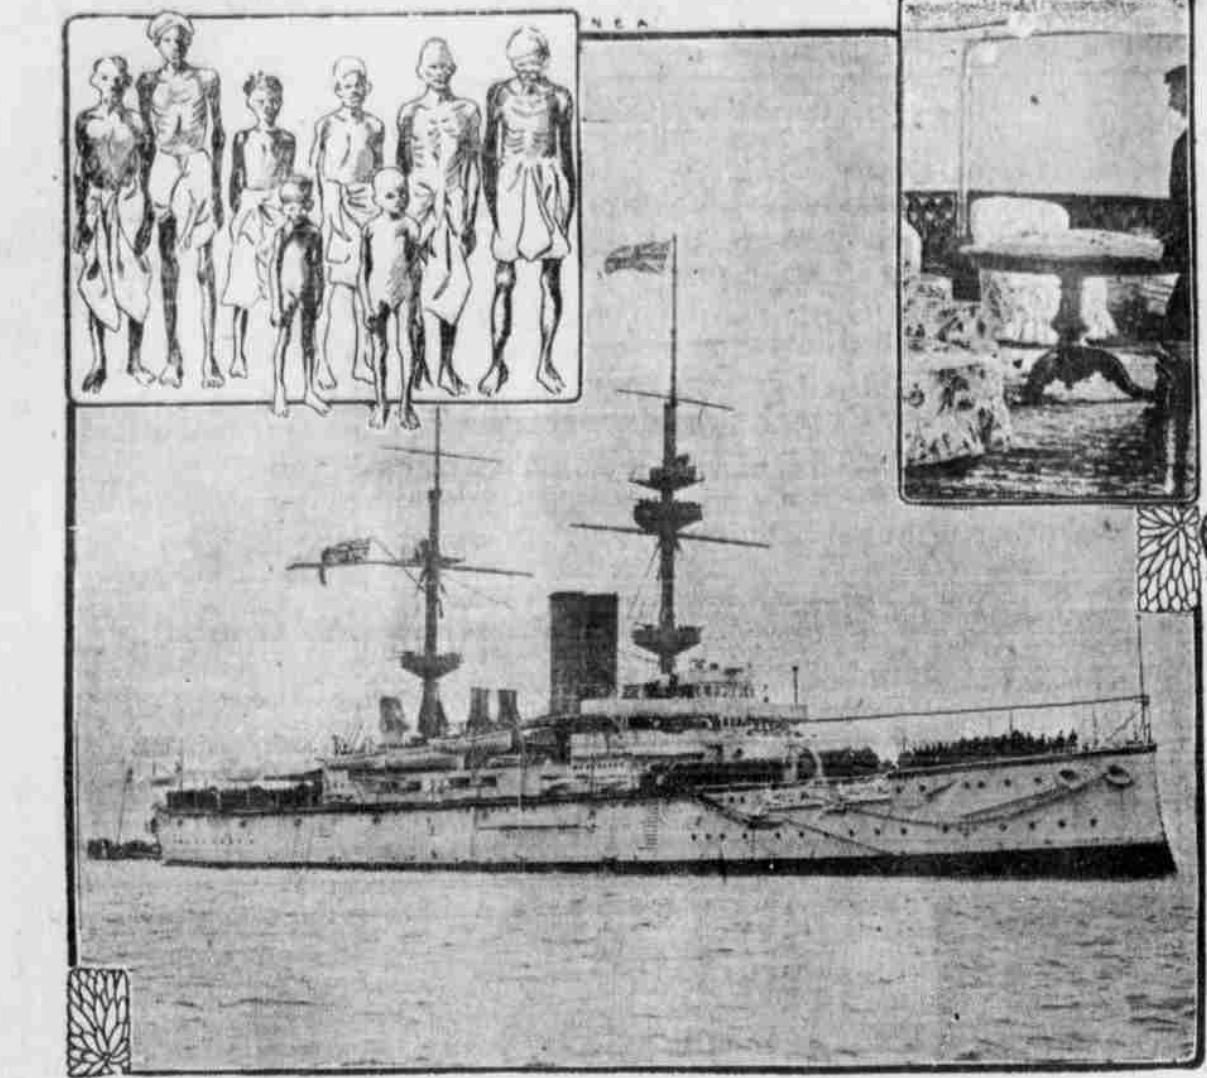

Sleep Next to Armor.

The officers' quarters on the warship have been commandeered to make further private rooms for the royal suite, and the officers during the voyage will have to rest content with the accommodations in the gun houses of the warship's huge rifles. The rifles have been removed to provide im-army of attendants will make by railway journey 11,000 miles, and will see every city of prominence in the dependency. Two trains will be filled with members of the party and a third will carry their baggage.

Splendid Entertainments.

At Calcutta, the capital of India, the royal travelers will make the greatest to stimulate the loyalty of millions of famine stricken Indians to British rule.

The Princess of Wales will take with her more than 100 dresses, and all of her magnificent jewels, which have been heavily insured against loss.

Wants Easy Sailing.

The royal party will cross the ocean on the battleship Renown. The reason is the proneness of the Princess of Wales to seasickness. She declined to spend a month on the water on an ordinary liner, and so, at great expense, the Renown, which has been built for steel-hulled ships, has been fitted up as a huge steel yacht. In the admiral's quarters of the vessel, upholsterers for the past three months have padded and quilted the iron cells into a series of boudoirs, reception rooms and sleeping rooms.

provided bed rooms and dining rooms. The result has been to metamorphose the grim fighting machine into a strange effeminate ocean ferry.

Glittering Retinue.

The Renown will sail from Portsmouth. The Princess of Wales will join her husband aboard at Genoa, traveling thither overland to shorten her sea journey.

In the royal suite will be 123 persons—generals, colonels, nobles and knights almost without end. Most of them will have to go to India on ordinary steamers.

Through India by Rail.

The royal party will land at Bombay on November 9, and will be received in full state by the new viceroy, Lord Minto, and probably by Lord and Lady Curzon.

Amid Famine.

While the prince and his wife are in India, they will be the direct cause of an expenditure of an average of $5,000 a day in entertaining and traveling. While they are thus reveling in riches, there will be perhaps 5,000,000 people of India stricken by famine, for indications point to this year being one of the worst in India famine records.

The prince and princess are being urged to abandon their route through the Rajputana district, where the famine is expected to record 1,000 deaths a week.

THE PIGGOTS VISITING

RATON FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Piggott of Chicago, while en route to the Pacific coast, stopped off in Raton to visit for a few days with their friends, Judge and Mrs. C. M. Bayne, says the Reporter. On Monday Mr. and Mrs. Bayne will accompany their guests on a few days' outing trip in the mountains and on their return they will continue their trip to the coast.

ALAMOGORDO LOSES VALU-

ABLE BUSINESS INTEREST.

Headquarters of the Southwestern Mercantile company have been removed from Alamogordo to Dawson. This change was made as a business proposition. A. J. King still retains general supervision of the S. M. Co., and E. M. Clark continues as auditor. These two gentlemen are fine business men and are familiar with the S. M. Co. affairs from start to finish. Mr. Clark will spend most of his time at Dawson, and Mr. King's headquarters are in El Paso.

PRECIPITATION THUS FAR

IN OTERO COUNTY.

Dry Land Farmer Dunn reports that with last Monday's rain, since January 1st, makes a total of 16.24 inches. From this it will be easily figured out why crops have done so remarkably well this year. There are yet three months of the year, and before January 1, 1906, we may get all sorts of rain. If farmers hereabouts would take advantage of the winter rains, and thoroughly prepare their land, next year's crop could be made with but very little rain, providing the proper system of cultivation is employed. Farming in this country requires a system. Farming in some of the rich states where rains are plentiful do not require some scientific system by which to work them; in New Mexico, or dry regions, farming is a science.

REV. WRIGHT HAS

ARRIVED AT ALAMOGORDO

Rev. W. J. Wright, the new pastor at the Methodist Episcopal church, south of the city, arrived at Alamogordo the latter part of last week in time to fill the pulpit Sunday, says the Advertiser. He was located at Gallup, N. M., last year. Mr. Wright comes highly recommended as a man and a minister. He was accompanied by his family. Until a few years ago Rev. Wright was a journeyman printer and newspaper man, and has never lost interest in the profession. In the boom days of Creede he was editor and founder of the Creede Candle, which had more than a local reputation and with which a number of Alamogordo people were more or less familiar at the time.

GLANCE OR TWO AT

The Episcopal ladies will serve a chicken relish and oyster party supper from 5:30 to 10 p. m., at the Price & Co. building on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 10th and 11th. Price, 25 cents. The Walker Kero air burner will be used.

William Willis, of the Salvation Army, left last night for points south, after inspecting the local post, especially as to its junior work. He reports that Roswell has one of the best corps, both as to junior and general work, to be found in the four states in this part of the southwest.

Theodore Elliott, wife and daughter, of Wichita, Kan., Mrs. E. E. Ford and son Robert, of Interlaken, N. Y., and L. J. Bissell and mother of Kalamazoo, Mich., arrived last night and will be here a greater part of the winter. They are incidentally prospecting for a permanent location.

INDIAN BOYS AT SANTA FE

INDIAN SCHOOL SKIP OUT

Some time Saturday afternoon four of the Indian boys, who are pupils at the United States Indian training school in Santa Fe, having become tired of school life, took French leave and departed for spots unknown. Three of them were Navajoes and one a Papago. The authorities at the school, as soon as the boys were missed, secured the bloodhounds from the penitentiary and endeavored to find in which direction the runaways had gone. In this, however, they were unsuccessful, and Superintendent Randall, of the school, sent out two men with teams and one on horseback, and also notified the police and several special Indian agents to be on the lookout. Nothing has been heard from the fugitives yet, but Mr. Randall thinks it will be but a short time until they will be apprehended. This is the first year at the school for all of them and it is supposed that the confinement at their work was not to their liking and so they struck for freedom.

YOUTHFUL HORSE THIEVES

LEAVE CAPITAN VICINITY

Two horses, each wearing saddles, disappeared last Saturday night from the rack where they were tied at the school house, says the Capitán News. It was at first thought that they had broken loose, but this belief was dispelled when no trace of them could be found the next day coupled with the further fact that two boys disappeared the same night. It was afterwards reported that these boys and horses were seen early Sunday morning, going through White Oaks.

Thomas Price, the elder, about 20 years old—forged S. L. Bone's name to an order at Welch & Titworth's Saturday night and bought some articles, among which were a pair of boots, breeches and quinine. He was accompanied by E. L. Bone's 12 year old son.

A WARRANT WAS ISSUED FOR THE APPREhension of Price on the charge of forgery, and officers are in pursuit. The missing horses came from Fort Stanton and were ridden by Martin Moore and William Copeland, employees at the fort.
